Fox & Ferret in Riccarton is a British-style gastropub providing a welcoming environment for business meetings and other social functions.

Located beside Westfield Mall in the heart of the Christchurch suburb of Riccarton and surrounded by acres of car parking, the Fox & Ferret combines superb facilities with quality catering and friendly, personalized service.

Function Space:

Catering for any occasion social or business from a brunch, lunch, dinner or cocktail function Fox and Ferret has three fabulous function areas to choose from. For private functions or small intimate groups we can host it all at the Fox and Ferret.

The Platform

This area is located on the ground floor of the Fox and Ferret. With a roaring fireplace and seating for 60 people or drinks and nibbles for 100 people, this area is great if you want an area to call your own but still be amongst the action at Fox and Ferret.

Mezzanine Floor

Great for private functions the Mezzanine floor upstairs has its own bar with two pool tables, which have specially designed tops that can be covered. Accommodating 30 people for dinner or 100 people drinks and nibbles, this area can also be made into two smaller rooms if required. A microphone is also available during functions, and an LCD screen can be used to display photos during your function.

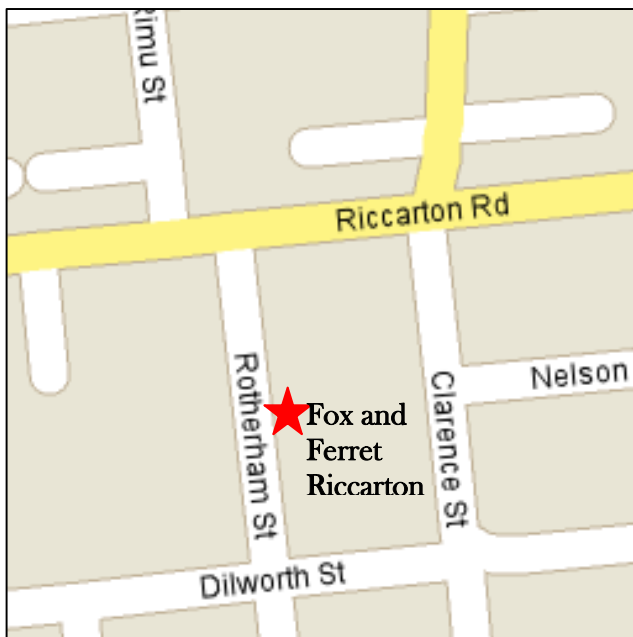

We are happy to discuss your individual needs and to customize facilities and services to suit. . In exceptional circumstances we might reserve the entire venue or certain areas for a special occasion.

With our friendly staff at your needs, your whole Fox and Ferret experience will have you relax and enjoy our gastropub environment.
