

1 August 2008

DE POST BARTENDER WINS NZ STELLA ARTOIS DRAUGHT MASTERS 2008

For the second year in a row, a bartender from De Post Belgium Beer Cafe in Mt Eden, Auckland, has won the NZ Stella Artois Draught Masters competition against contestants from all over NZ. Kirsty McLean follows in the footsteps of Erin Carroll, who won the NZ round in 2007 and went on to win the World competition in Belgium.

Finalists were judged on their ability to perform the 9-Step Belgian beer pouring ritual, mastering the pour of three traditionally brewed Belgian beers - Stella Artois, Hoegaarden and Leffe Brune, whilst entertaining both the crowds and judges with their unique style, spontaneity and sociability!

Congratulations to Kirsty and best of luck in Belgium later this year!

Erin Carroll & Kirsty McLean